To : SAC, CHICAGO

Date 9/25/92

From : SSA [redacted] (SQ6C)

Subject: FRANK L. CIANGI;
RICO;
OO: CHICAGO

The purpose of this communication is to request review and approval to open a new Chicago Division Organized Crime Program (OCP) investigation.

Mission of the Organized Crime Program (OCP), Chicago Office:

The mission of the Chicago OCP is to eliminate the La Cosa Nostra (LCN) and other OC groups which pose a significant threat to the citizens of the Chicago area through sustained, coordinated, prioritized investigations which support the development of prosecutable RICO cases to include appropriate asset forfeiture and/or Civil RICO actions.

The mission of Squad 6C is to develop prosecutable RICO cases against the INFELICE, [redacted] and CARLISI Street Crews, to include LCN members and their associates.

FRANK L. CIANGI has admitted to owning and running the 4901 CLUB, (aka: CLUB HOLLYWOOD) which is a (female) strip club on West Roosevelt Road in Cicero, Illinois. CIANGI, who had admitted to being arrested by the Cook County Sheriff's Police for prostitution, was once believed to (and may still) be running all the strip/prostitution clubs in Cicero, Illinois for Chicago street crew boss/member SAM CARLISI. CIANGI has been personally linked to Chicago subject JOHN (Johnny Apes) MONTELEONE. CIANGI is now known to be collecting, "street tax" for MONTELEONE, who is a member of the Chicago INFELICE street crew.

Targeting CIANGI would shed light on the activities, criminal operations, victims and support network for the INFELICE street crew and possibly the CARLISI street crew.

The short-term objectives of this investigation would be to develop intelligence information about the hierarchy and duties of the street crew, their current operations, specific associates and victims. This information is needed for three reasons: first, to update current intelligence information on the ever changing power structure, duties and membership of the street crews; second, the identification of associates and victims for the possible transformation of said individuals into productive sources; finally, the development of probable cause to support possible title three activities, search warrants and installation/monitoring of a vehicle tracking transmitter.

The long-term objectives would be to develop strong, prosecutable RICO cases against CIANGI and other subjects both known and unknown.

The purposed investigation is quite appropriate to the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION's (FBI) National Investigative Priority and the organize crime program mission of both the Chicago Division and Squad 6C.

This case will be assigned to Squad 6C member, Special Agent (SA)

SUBJECT INFORMATION:

Both CIANGI and MONTELEONE, (who CIANGI has also been acting as a personal driver for) are known to be extremely surveillance conscious. Many of CIANGI's operations occur during late night, so that surveillance units may be more readily picked out in sparse traffic patterns.

The subject, FRANK L. CIANGI, is believed to be the new street tax collector in the Berwyn and Cicero areas. The street tax is being collected for JOHN (Johnny Apes) MONTELEONE, (the former collector) who in turn is a member of the Chicago INFELISE street crew.

SA [REDACTED] strategy for the case rest with the proposed installation and usage of a vehicle tracking transmitter. The transmitter would allow for a loose mobile surveillance, which would in turn allow the subject more freedom and confidence to openly operate. The tracking device would provide specific, timely data about the subject's travels, stops and records of time and place.

On November 3, 1992, a meeting was held in the Chicago Division's Squad 11 area between SSA [REDACTED] (Supervisor, Squad 11), SSA [REDACTED] (Supervisor, Squad 10), SA [REDACTED] (SA in charge of the installation of said tracking transmitter) and SA [REDACTED] (Case Agent). The discussion centered on the needs of Squad 11 to properly perform the installation of the tracking transmitter and the coordination required with Squad 10.

At the conclusion of the meeting, it was decided that SA [REDACTED] would require a two week survey of the subject and his vehicle to determine a window of opportunity for the installation of the tracking transmitter. SA [REDACTED] would require an activity

Source stated that there currently exists, in the Chicago area, a group of individuals who are professional criminals and who are associated together with the express purpose of conducting a variety of illegal activities including gambling operations, the collection of extortionate street tax, loan sharking and other crimes commenting that this criminal organization is known to the source as the Organized Crime Syndicate or more commonly "The Chicago Outfit".

These crews and associates regularly associate in street level criminal activities at the direction and control of the "Chicago Outfit" upper echelon bosses. The source knows from personal experience that a percentage of the monies generated by the lower level associates within each of the street crews are passed to mid-level associates and on up to the crew bosses and to the upper echelon bosses of the Organized Crime Syndicate or "Chicago Outfit".

The source advised that JOHN MONTELEONE, aka Johnny Apes Monteleone and JAMES LA PIETRA, aka Jimmy LaPietra are both Chicago Outfit bosses currently engaged in the management and the furtherance of Chicago Outfit activities which includes the collection of "street tax", loan sharking, illegal sports betting and other crimes.

Further, the source stated that FRANK CIANGI of Burr Ridge, Illinois, is currently engaged in Chicago "outfit" activities including managing a house of prostitution/strip tease nightclub known as "THE SPOT LOUNGE", Cicero, Illinois and serving as a driver for JOHN "Apes" MONTELEONE.

ET AL;
RICO;
OO: CHICAGO

The following investigation was conducted by the case Agent/writer, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), Chicago Division, Squad (SQ.) 6C, unless otherwise noted.

b6
b7C

This case, originally opened on September 25, 1992, targeted Chicago Division subject FRANK L. CIANGI, [Date of Birth (DOB): 4/2/43]. Source information provided that CIANGI was (is) a street tax collector for the Cicero, Illinois Street Crew Boss JOHN MONTELEONE, (AKA: "JOHNNY APES"). CIANGI was also believed to act as a driver for MONTELEONE.

CIANGI has been known to almost exclusively operate a 1984 Ford LTD II, grey with a black cloth roof, bearing Illinois Registration: UMP-135. CIANGI always parks this vehicle directly in front of, (if space is available) or within one block of the business/residence he is visiting. This exclusive use of one vehicle and parking habits has made CIANGI a worthwhile surveillance target.

Physical surveillance on CIANGI was conducted as spot checks by the writer since the inception of this case. Detailed surveillance coverage was provided by the Chicago Division's Special Operations Group (SOG) between 11/16/92 and 11/24/92. The surveillances provided support for the source information which linked CIANGI to MONTELEONE. The surveillances also provided locations frequented by CIANGI.

The surveillances were difficult in that CIANGI appeared to be aware of the possibility of surveillance activity. CIANGI would go to lengths to check for and avert surveillance activity. An example of this occurred on Friday, 11/20/92. The SOG, accompanied by the writer had occasion to surveil CIANGI at night while operating his aforementioned vehicle. CIANGI drove his vehicle from his residence, (7619 South Drew Avenue, Burr Ridge, Illinois) to Interstate 55 (I-55), the STEVENSON Expressway, where he proceeded northbound toward the City of Chicago, Illinois.

The STEVENSON Expressway had extremely sparse traffic proceeding northbound. The average speed of traffic along said state route was approximately 70 miles per hour plus. Shortly after entering northbound I-55, CIANGI moved his vehicle to the far right lane and proceeded northbound at approximately 45 miles an hour. Surveillance units followed CIANGI for approximately three northbound exits during which time CIANGI's vehicle did not increase in speed or change lanes. The surveillance had to be broken off by the FBI Chicago Division's SOG so as not to tip CIANGI off as to their presence.

It was decided that CIANGI would be a prime target for the installation (and monitoring) of a [redacted] unit. [redacted]

[redacted] uses a Vehicle Location Unit (VLU) [redacted]

[redacted]

b7E

The VLU [redacted]

[redacted] This would provide for an extremely loose surveillance with a large reduction in necessary manpower.

During March of 1993, source information provided that CIANGI and MONTELEONE, (along with other Cicero based organized crime subjects) had been shaken up by a failed Title III attempt by another Chicago Division organized crime squad. CIANGI, who appeared regularly at known locations each day, suddenly could not be found anywhere other than his residence. This lasted for approximately two weeks. CIANGI then started to again frequent one previous location, the SPOT LOUNGE, 5801 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois.

The SPOT LOUNGE fronts itself as a female dancer strip club, but is actually a house of prostitution. CIANGI was the SPOT LOUNGE's door man in prior years. The manager of the SPOT

LOUNGE was (is) believed to be [redacted] (DOB: [redacted])

[redacted] was also believed to be running another club, (of the same type) called the SOLID GOLD, ALL GIRL EXOTIC REVIEW, 4901 West Roosevelt Road, Cicero, Illinois. The SOLID GOLD's on site manager was (is) believed to be [redacted] (DOB: [redacted])
[redacted] resides [redacted]

b6
b7C

The writer had discussions with the Chicago Division's Squad 11, (the technical squad) about the constraints and time necessary to properly install the VJL [redacted]
[redacted]

b7E

The only place the vehicle was left unattended for that amount of time was at CIANGI's residence. An entry at the residence was ruled out for two reasons: First, the vehicle was parked up a long, well-lit driveway, in a quiet semi-rural area. Second, the BURR RIDGE POLICE DEPARTMENT was located where CIANGI's back yard ended, and less than 100 yards from the vehicle. It appeared strange than an individual as paranoid as CIANGI would live next to the police station. The Chicago Division had no knowledge of the police department and possible relationship to CIANGI.

The writer, accompanied by SA [redacted] (Squad 6C) conducted a physical surveillance (FISUR) of both the SPOT LOUNGE and the SOLID GOLD during mid March, 1993. The writer was solicited by prostitutes working in both clubs. [redacted] was seen working in the SOLID GOLD.

b7C

It was decided to conduct a ruse using the strip clubs to lure CIANGI into the City of Chicago. [redacted] and finally [redacted] would be subpoenaed to appear in front of the Federal Grand Jury to answer questions about [redacted]

b3

[redacted] were both served on 4/1/93 to appear at 9:30 a.m. on 4/8/93. Service on [redacted] was delayed until 4/8/93, (for appearance on 4/15/93 at 9:30 a.m.) for several reasons. First, the writer wanted [redacted] to come into town alone, in his own vehicle and not ride in with [redacted]. Second, as [redacted] is known to be paranoid, [redacted] would serve as living examples of every step of the process, including the amount of time necessary for the grand jury process, questions asked, finger prints and photographs.

[] left the SPOT LOUNGE at approximately 8:30 a.m. with a white male believed to be the bouncer/doorman for the SPOT LOUNGE. Both individuals entered a green, 1972 Plymouth Fury two door and drove off toward the city. The writer decided at this point to discontinue the attempt to install the VLU as [] vehicle was parked along Roosevelt Road (in a non-tow-away zone) and the fact that SSA [] reported a marked increase in patrol by CICERO POLICE DEPARTMENT since the arrival of the SOG.

b6
b7C

[] arrived for the grand jury appearance at 9:30 a.m. where he and his attorney were met by Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) JOHN J. SCULLY. SCULLY was asked by the writer to suggest that [] and his attorney return the following Thursday, (4/22/93 at 9:30 a.m.) as the grand jury was backed up and that the wait may be lengthy. [] attorney was quite receptive to this, stating that he (the attorney) had not had an opportunity to speak at length with []. Source information later reported that even though [] agreed to the one week delay, he was angry over it.

b3

During the week after the first attempt, the writer used the dry run information to tighten the installation plan. The writer enlisted the assistance of two Cook County Sheriff's Police (CCSP) Investigators, currently assigned to FBI Squad 8,

CIANGI has an electronic tracking device secreted in his vehicle:

- 1984 Ford LTD II, 4-door Sedan

DATES OF REQUESTED COVERAGE:

Coverage is requested over a two-week period, specifically Monday, May 10, 1993 through Friday, May 14, 1993 and Monday, May 17, 1993 through Friday, May 21, 1993. All shifts are requested to be set for 11:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. CIANGI has shown activity primarily during these hours.

GOALS OF SURVEILLANCE:

- 1) Identify person to person contacts.

b6
b7C

CIANGI is believed to meet daily at specific locations where he is believed to be receiving instructions for his daily activities. At the least, it is requested that SOG obtain registration plates next to locations CIANGI is meeting; at best, identify specific individuals (and/or photograph) meeting with subject CIANGI.

- 2) Identify possible collection victims.

CIANGI appears to leave a specific restaurant, (PLAZA RESTAURANT AND MOTEL, corner of Cicero Avenue and 31st Street, Cicero) drive around and make 15-20 minute stops in the Near West suburbs. Identification of specific addresses of each stop and registration of vehicles at said locations would assist in locating victims for later interview/grand jury.

LOGISTICS:

SA [] Squad 6C, is familiar with the monitoring device computer and members of the SOG teams. SA [] is set to be operating the computer, which will be located in the Chicago Division's radio room over the period in question. SA [] will via radio, (and the group leader's cellular telephone, if necessary) instruct the team of the subject vehicle's location and direction of travel to allow the SOG to loosely move into the general area, then allow the SOG to know when the vehicle is stopped, to allow for SOG to make a direct inspection.

KNOWN LOCATIONS:

CIANGI is known to spend extended periods of time at three particular locations:

- 1) Residence
7619 South Drew Avenue
Burr Ridge, Illinois 60521

This is subject CIANGI's usual starting point. He has never been known to conduct his meetings here, so it is currently not important as a surveillance target. CIANGI appears to leave this location on weekdays between 10:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. to begin his day.

- 2) SPOT LOUNGE
5801 West Roosevelt Road
Cicero, Illinois 60622

CIANGI appears to visit this lounge daily. It is believed that CIANGI meets with [redacted] at this lounge. Height: 5'7" Weight: 165 pounds Hair: Grey/Brown Eyes: Brown Home Address: [redacted] (See Photo). [redacted] drives a white Buick Wildcat with a white (422) Landau roof. [redacted] is the manager of the SPOT LOUNGE. 1/3 Landau roof [redacted] is the manager of the SPOT LOUNGE.

- 3) PLAZA RESTAURANT AND MOTEL
8030 Cicero Avenue, MOBILE
Cicero, Illinois 60622
(corner of Cicero and 81st)

CIANGI usually spends several hours at this restaurant. (morning/early afternoon) leaves to conduct business and return later in the afternoon for several more hours. CIANGI's restaurant usually park in the motel's parking lot as there is no direct street parking at this busy intersection as there is no [redacted] at this busy intersection.

Currently, SA [redacted] Squad 80, is set to occupy the motel and eatery restaurant during the first week of the surveillance to independently identify individuals meeting there. More details on this separate operation will be provided when available. This same operation will be provided when available.

Subject: SURVEILLANCE REQUEST

CHICAGO FILE #: 281A-CG-88298

CASE SHORT TITLE: FRANK L. CIANGI;
RICO;
OO: CHICAGO

A surveillance is requested as a part of an ongoing investigation targeting Chicago subjects FRANK L. CIANGI and JOHN (JOHNNY APES) MONTELEONE. CIANGI is believed to be acting as a street tax collector for MONTELEONE, who, in turn acts as the street crew boss for illegal organized crime operations in Cicero, Illinois.

CIANGI has an electronic tracking device secreted in his vehicle:

- 1984 Ford LTD II, 4-door Sedan
- Lite grey body, black cloth roof
- Illinois registration: UMP 135

The tracking device allows for extremely loose surveillance coverage.

DATES OF REQUESTED COVERAGE:

Coverage is requested over a two-week period, specifically Monday, May 10, 1993 through Friday, May 14, 1993 and Monday, May 17, 1993 through Friday, May 21, 1993. All shifts are requested to be set for 11:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. CIANGI has shown activity primarily during these hours.

GOALS OF SURVEILLANCE:

- 1) Identify person to person contacts.

CIANGI is believed to meet daily at specific locations where he is believed to be receiving instructions for his daily activities. At the least, it is requested that SOG obtain registration plates next to locations CIANGI is meeting; at best, identify specific individuals (and/or photograph) meeting with subject CIANGI.

- 2) Identify possible collection victims.

CIANGI appears to leave a specific restaurant, (PLAZA RESTAURANT AND MOTEL, corner of Cicero Avenue and 31st Street, Cicero) drive around and make 15-20 minute stops in the Near West suburbs. Identification of specific addresses of each stop and registration of vehicles at said locations would assist in locating victims for later interview/grand jury.

LOGISTICS:

SA [] Squad 6C, is familiar with the monitoring device computer and members of the SOG teams. SA [] is set to be operating the computer, which will be located in the Chicago Division's radio room over the period in question. SA [] will via radio, (and the group leader's cellular telephone, if necessary) instruct the team of the subject vehicle's location and direction of travel to allow the SOG to loosely move into the general area, then allow the SOG to know when the vehicle is stopped, to allow for SOG to make a direct inspection.

281A-CG-88298

KNOWN LOCATIONS:

CIANGI is known to spend extended periods of time at three particular locations:

- 1) Residence
7619 South Drew Avenue
Burr Ridge, Illinois 60521

This is subject CIANGI's usual starting point. He has never been known to conduct his meetings here, so it is currently not important as a surveillance target. CIANGI appears to leave this location on weekdays between 10:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. to begin his day.

- 2) SPOT LOUNGE
5801 West Roosevelt Road
Cicero, Illinois 60650

CIANGI appears to visit this lounge daily. It is believed that CIANGI meets with [REDACTED] DOB: [REDACTED] Height: 5'7", Weight: 165 pounds, Hair: Grey/Brown, Eyes: Brown, Home Address: [REDACTED] (See Photo). [REDACTED] drives a white Chrysler, 2 door, with a white (1/2) Landau roof. [REDACTED] is the manager of the SPOT LOUNGE.

- 3) PLAZA RESTAURANT AND MOTEL
3030 Cicero Avenue
Cicero, Illinois 60650
(corner of Cicero and 31st)

CIANGI usually spends several hours at this restaurant, (morning/early afternoon) leaves to conduct business and returns later in the afternoon for several more hours. Patrons of the restaurant usually park in the motel's parking lot as there is no direct street parking at this busy intersection.

Currently, SA [REDACTED] Squad 6C, is set to occupy the motel and eat at the restaurant during the first week of the surveillance to independently identify individuals meeting there. More details on this separate operation will be provided when available.

On Thursday, October 14, 1993, Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI), Chicago Division, Squad 6C, had occasion to be conducting a spot check on Chicago Division subject JOHN MONTELEONE, also known as (aka) JOHNNY APES, Date of Birth (DOB) January 29, 1924, FBI number 835775E. The check provided the following information:

b6
b7C

At approximately 9:00 AM, SA [REDACTED] was driving through Oaklawn, Illinois in search of MONTELEONE's vehicle, a 1990 Chrysler New Yorker sedan, champagne/tan in color with a 1/3 landau roof, (rear of vehicle) bearing Illinois registration: UF-8205. An older address of 10440 South Mansfield, Oaklawn, Illinois 60453 was the last known official listing of the subject. At approximately 9:15 AM, SA [REDACTED] arrived at 10440 South Mansfield, which was a three story, six unit apartment building on the northwest corner of South Mansfield and Parkside Avenue.

b6
b7C

The front and main entrance of the apartment building faced south onto Parkside Avenue, (the structure and South Mansfield are approximately four to five blocks west of Central Avenue on Parkside, an unmarked east/west roadway just south of the Oaklawn PARK DISTRICT TENNIS AND RACKET CLUB on Central).

South of the apartment building is a natural prairie with fair overgrowth. The west side of the building holds the structure's parking lot. The ground floor on the west side of the building holds separate garage doors. There are no windows, (including the garage doors) on the west side of the structure.

There were only two vehicles in the parking area, the nearer (southern) vehicle was the aforementioned one believed to be owned by MONTELEONE. SA [REDACTED] entered the front of the apartment building which gave access to the structure's mailboxes. None of the names matched the subject's.

Reference conversation between the case Agent, SA
[REDACTED] Squad 6C and SSA [REDACTED] FBIHQ, OC/DI
Unit on 10/29/93 and 11/5/93.

The following is a 180 day case status airtel.

On 10/2/92, a new Chicago Division organized crime case, (Squad 6C) was opened on Chicago subject FRANK L. CIANGI, Date of Birth (DOB) 4/2/43. At the time of the opening of this case, it was believed that CIANGI was acting as the driver and close confidant of JOHN MONTELEONE, DOB 1/29/24, [also known as (aka) JOHNNY APES] the street crew boss for Cicero, Illinois. Source information and Agent spot checks verified this relationship.

2 - Bureau
① - Chicago
TAL/jmc
(3)

Approved: _____ Transmitted _____ (Number) (Time) Per _____

CIANGI's daily use of one particular vehicle in his operations and the fact that he parked this vehicle at or near places he would physically stop at, made CIANGI an excellent target for surveillance. The use of traditional surveillance techniques had limited effect on the subject, which lead to the decision to install an electronic tracking device in the subject's vehicle. An elaborate ruse was developed which included [REDACTED]

b7E

[REDACTED] The tracking device was successfully installed with the assistance of the CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT and the COOK COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT.

The device successfully operated between 4/4/93 and 7/16/93, at which time the device was shut off in compliance with the Federal court order. Surveillance by the Chicago Special Operations Group, assisted by the tracking device provided a great deal of useful information.

In brief, a consistent pattern of daily activities of subject CIANGI was developed. CIANGI was known to frequent and meet at known organized crime locations. CIANGI was not found to hold any legitimate employment. CIANGI, over the ninety day period, within the confines of Cicero, Illinois, never used the same pay telephone twice.

Although CIANGI met with other organized crime subjects and associates, CIANGI was never seen in the company of MONTELEONE [REDACTED] This stood out in light of their daily meetings [REDACTED] Source information provided that CIANGI was (and is) continuing his duties as collector and driver, (of other Chicago subjects) but on a much more clandestine basis.

The consistent consensus opinion has been that CIANGI is more valuable for what he knows than who he is. This information, combined with the fact that several Agents, who had interviewed CIANGI in the past, felt that he could be converted to a source lead to the decision to attempt an approach at CIANGI.

The UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE was enlisted into the project to offer CIANGI grand jury immunity. The immunity would offer a hammer which could be used in the approach. A consensus of opinion by all individuals which knew CIANGI on a personal level, (both Agents and sources) held that CIANGI would do anything to avoid spending a day in jail. Should CIANGI opt to testify and lie, the detailed surveillance information, which could be integrated into the grand jury questioning, would be used to show perjury.

On Wednesday, 10/28/93, the case Agent met with CIANGI to lay the ground work for an approach, (the subject, to this point had never met the case agent). CIANGI was quite nervous but polite and cordial with the case Agent.

On Monday, 11/1/93, SA [redacted] (Acting Supervisor Squad 6C), SSA [redacted] (Supervisor of Squad 6A), SA's [redacted] and [redacted] (both members of Squad 6A) and the case Agent had a meeting to discuss activities being conducted on both squads to target MONTELEONE. Squad 6A felt that their people were close to a Title III on MONTELEONE and that the current activities and plans with CIANGI would jeopardize Squad 6A's efforts. Plans to approach subject CIANGI and current investigative efforts targeting CIANGI and MONTELEONE have been put on hold.

Files of the Chicago Division reflect that SAMUEL J. ANNERINO, then age 34 and residing at 9520 South Mayfield, Oak Lawn, Illinois, was brutally murder at 4:20 p.m. on July 25, 1977 by a masked gunman who fired five shotgun blasts into ANNERINO as he left the MIRABELLI FURNITURE AND APPLIANCE STORE located at 10550 South Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, Illinois. The killer fled the scene in a red car driven by another man.

ANNERINO had been a lieutenant of JAMES "Jimmy the Bomber" CATUARA and was involved in major drug activity as well as mob wars over the stolen car, "chop shop" racket, and collection of "street tax" from "chop shops".

It should be noted that ANNERINO's boss, JAMES CATUARA, age 72 of 9600 South Kilbourn Avenue, Oak Lawn, Illinois, was also murdered a year later. CATUARA was found shot twice in the head, once in the neck, and once in the back, face down, near his red CADILLAC in the northeast corner of Hubbard and Ogden Avenue in Chicago, Illinois, having been gun down around 7:00 a.m., July 28, 1978 by several mob hitmen waiting in a blue van in this remote industrial area.

The source commented that [REDACTED] had been a close friend and criminal associate of SAM ANNERINO, Supra, and was very shaken by the murder of ANNERINO.
